The Catholic
Archdiocese of Edmonton

New Director for Our Lady of Victory Camp!

The Catholic Archdiocese of Edmonton is excited to announce the hiring of Cody Parr as director for Our Lady of Victory Camp. Cody is a parishioner at St. Charles Parish in Edmonton, AB, and brings with him a wide variety of experience that will serve Our Lady of Victory Camp well. Cody recently converted to Catholicism but credits his time at Crowsnest Bible Camp as a key formative experience in his childhood. He is thrilled to put his experience and talents at the service of OLVC and our beloved young people. Looking forward this new role which he will assume in early December, Cody says:

"I believe that camp is one of the few places in our world in which the needs of the whole person, physical, social, and spiritual, are recognized and met. With this in mind, I am very excited for the opportunity to continue to create a place that recognizes and meets the needs of the young people of the Archdiocese of Edmonton at Our Lady of Victory Camp."

Originally founded in 1946, Our Lady of Victory Camp relaunched this summer and offered 280 young people the chance to encounter Christ, encounter community, and encounter creation during a week at camp in 2023. OLVC will be hosting a virtual general meeting (via Zoom) on Saturday, November 4th, 2023 at 7pm. If you'd like the link to join this meeting, please email camps@caedm.ca.
